AS YOU KNOW THERE are many invitations that come across our desk for various "grand openings", "open houses", etc.

Due to circumstances beyond our control, we are not able to take advantage of all of them.

Consequently we miss out on a lot of "free loading", as it is called in the trade.

But you can't win 'em all.

The invitations, incidentally, come in all kinds of "packages", ranging from formal to the very informal.

Recently we received one that bears mention, even if we were unable to attend the affair.

The invitation read: "You are cordially invited to an old-fashioned happening" and it pertained to the opening of the Gross Building at Meridian Corners on Willow Street in San Jose.

The invitation itself was impressive enough but the envelope was even more so.

It was encased in a 10x13 manilla envelope on which name and address had been beautifully hand-lettered in a style that would do credit to the most attractive diploma you have ever received.

That it was directed to "35 Dill Ave." instead of Dillon Ave. is beside the point.

It was neat.

We saved the invitation, even if it was not possible to take in the "old-fashioned" opening.

IN A RECENT NEWS story about the official naming of an official flower for the City of Campbell (it is the Shasta Daisy), Jose Stell, who covers Campbell for the San Jose Merc, indicated that no street in Campbell was named for a flower...or even a tree, as far as he could determine.

Jose was fairly correct, although there are a few streets in the area, such as "Cherry Lane", "Walnut" and "Cypress" that must have been named for trees somewhere down the line.

Of course there is no "Daisy" lane, court, drive, road, avenue or street in honor of our new flower.

There is a "Rose Court" but that is named after former councilman Charlie Rose and not the flower.

WE WILL CONCEDE, however, that basically Jose is right. And, it is unusual for a city not to have a whole parcel of streets with flower or tree names.

We recall, for example, the town of Corona Del Mar where our old newspaper boss, Ralph Turner, now lives in peaceful retirement.

His home is on Poppy Ave.

And you can find his street very easily, provided you know the alphabet and/or names of flowers.

The streets in the section where Ralph lives are all named for flowers, and alphabetically as well, we will have you know...

Starting with "Azelia" and ending on "Zinnia".

OUT ON ANOTHER limb, one of our long-time suppliers, the Intertype Company, has somehow located The Campbell Press on a street named for a tree.

The monthly statements that The Press has been receiving lately have been addressed to "50 Juniper St., Campbell, Cal. 95008".

The Press has been a customer of Intertype for many years, even before computers were used extensively for bookkeeping purposes.

It is useless, probably, to have a heart-to-heart talk with the computer that insists The Press is at "50 Juni-

Overpass plans get city okay

Reluctant approval was given the preliminary plans of the Rincon Ave. pedestrian overpass by a split 3-2 vote of the City Council on Monday night.

But even the three councilman (Mayor Homer Hyde, Ed Rogers and Dean Chamberlin) who voted for the plans that had been submitted for the first time voiced displeasure with the way the county public works department had presented it.

All the councilmen have long favored the long-awaited pedestrian overpass that will be financed jointly by the county ($50,000); Campbell ($25,000); San Jose ($12,500) and the Campbell school district ($12,500).

But what bugged the city fathers was that the plan had been presented to them for the first time. It had been indicated by the county public works department that, if any modifications were made to it, the project could be delayed for another year.

The councilmen also did not like the way the overpass will use the old right-of-way of the now dead-ended Rincon Ave. Ralph Doetsch claimed that this would work a hardship, if the city ever wanted to make a through street out of Rincon Ave. again.

The three councilmen who voted for the plans, however, maintained that, although they did not like it particularly, it did mean the job might be completed by this fall, where otherwise be delayed for some time.

Both Councilmen Ralph Doetsch and Bill Smeed voted against the approval of the plans because they felt that they could be improved.

The Council split 3-2 on another matter during the long drawn out meeting Monday in overruling a decision of the Planning Commission which had denied a use permit for a car wash operation at Kennedy and Winchester Blvd.

TOP WINNERS---Two Campbell High seniors, Steve Rosenthal (left), son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rosenthal, 898 Torero Plaza, and George Akina, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Akina, of 751 Budd Ave., were each awarded checks of $1000 for being first placers in their respective divisions in the Bank of America Achievement Awards competition. A. W. Clausen, BofA executive vice-president (right) presented the checks.

Two Campbell High seniors win $1000 B of A scholastic awards

Some sort of local record was made this past week when it was announced that Campbell High seniors George Akina and Steve Rosenthal, won two of the four $1000 awards offered for first place in the annual Bank of America achievements awards.

The other two $1000 awards, coincidentally, also went to students of the same high school, Kathleen Parsons and Michael Hanley of Carlmont High in San Mateo County.

The four top winners were among the 27 finalists who received almost $10,000 from the Bank of America. The presentation, which was made in San Francisco last Thursday at the Hilton Hotel, climaxed months of suspense for the youths, who previously had been tops in the local and regional competition before reaching the finals.

The selection was made by a panel of judges composed of civic leaders and businessmen. They spent the day interviewing the students, whose academic records and extra-curricular activities were also taken into consideration.

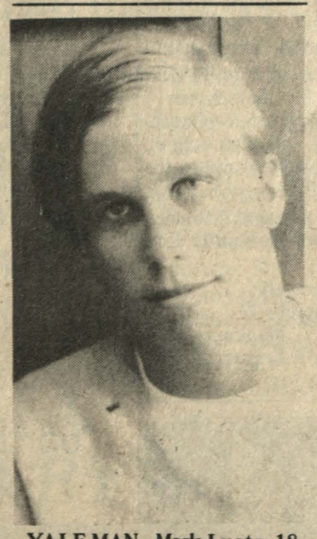
Four students were picked for second place ($500) and four for third place ($250), while 15 were tabbed runners-up at $150 each.

The awards were presented by A. W. Clausen, executive vice-president of the BofA. The awards banquet was attended by 600 people at which Carl R. Terzian, of Terzian Associates, was the featured speaker.

Akina, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Akina, of 751 Budd Ave., Campbell is student body president and is active in drama and art in high school. He won the $1000 award in the fine arts division. He of Pacific next year.

Rosenthal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rosenthal, of 898 Torero Plaza, Campbell, is a straight "A" student and is a member of Campbell High's outstanding speech and debate team. He plans to attend University of California, Berkeley, next fall. He won the top award in the liberal arts division in the contest.

Both youths paid special tribute to the administrators and teachers at Campbell High who helped them prepare for the interviews.



YALE MAN--Mark Luoto, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Luoto, of 733 Old Orchard Road, Campbell, and a graduating senior at Campbell High, has been notified that he has been accepted at Yale University, New Haven, Conn. for the fall term.

Mark is an "A" student, has been accepted "with honors" at Yale and will receive an annual $2000 academic scholarship. He plans to major in political science and hopes to enter foreign service.

He has been a member of the Buc swimming team and has been a class officer and active in debating and in the honor society. A top-notch golfer he recently won the junior championship.

With his sister, Vickie, an honor student at UC, Santa Barbara, he plans to tour Europe this summer.

A cursory examination of available records indicate that Mark is the first Campbell youth to attend Yale.

HAMILTON - BASCOM - CAMPBELL (Biggest in local history)

Council approves $500,000 street improvement project

Another big step was taken Monday night by the City Council in the long-awaited improvement of the Hamilton-Bascom-Campbell "u-shaped" street improvement project, the biggest ever undertaken in this city's history.

It is estimated that the project will cost more than $500,000.

On Monday night, following a comprehensive report by Frank Lewis, of the city engineer's staff, the City Council adopted the necessary resolutions that will set up Local Improvement District No. 18.

A public hearing on the LID was scheduled for June 17 when bids for the job will be reviewed.

Under LID No. 18, the property owners will be assessed for much of the improvement costs but the city foots the bill for about $233,000 from gas tax funds.

The county and state are involved in the project, Lewis pointed out, as most of the utilities, PG&E, Pacific Telephone, San Jose Water Works, and Sanitation District No. 4, as well as Southern Pacific because of the railroad crossing.

Lewis said that 70% of the property owners have approved the formation of the LID, of which the Fred Sahadi property at Bascom and Campbell avenues on which "The Towers" and "The Pruneyard" will be located is the largest parcel.

In addition to the widening and improving the streets, also involved is the first underground utility district for Campbell in conjunction with PG&E. At the cost of $77,000 much of the utility lines will be placed underground.

The project encompasses the widening of Hamilton Ave. from the freeway to the Bascom intersection including the widening of the bridge over Los Gatos Creek to six lanes.

Bascom Ave. will be widened to the city limits and Campbell Ave., from Bascom to the freeway will also be widened and improved.

In a related matter, the City Council approved the agreement with Mrs. Emma A. Martin, owner of La Fonda's restaurant at Campbell and Bascom avenues. Lewis explained that the widening of Bascom would necessitate the elimination of the off-street parking area of the restaurant.

The agreement replaces the right-of-way with other off-street parking.

The City Council also directed the staff to proceed with the formation of a Local Improvement District for Dell and Division avenues in the industrial area.

If the LID cannot be formed, the councilmen indicated they would have to explore some possible arrangement for part-financing by the city from bond funds.

In still another major street matter, the City Council set next Monday, May 19, as a conference date with the state highway engineers to review the various plans that have been suggested for the on and off-ramps at Highway 17 and Campbell avenues.

City officials hope that the off-ramp issue will be on the State Highway Commission's agenda in June.

Citizens start big push for bonds

Members of the Campbell Citizens for Parks this week began in earnest the drive to enlist voter support for the $625,000 park bond issue that will come before the voters on June 10.

Headquarters for the bond campaign will be in Bennett Hall at the Campbell Congregational Church on W. Campbell Ave.

Brochures are being distributed throughout the community emphasizing the theme "SAVE OUR PARKS".

The bond drive committee is emphasizing that the park bonds will provide benefits for everyone and that, in addition, to the expansion of the central park on Rincon, $80,000 will be allocated for the development of neighborhood parks in conjunction with the school district.

The committee members are also pointing out that should the bonds fail on June 10, a 288-unit apartment complex is scheduled to be built adjacent to the Rincon Park

MANY GIVE SUPPORT

Topless case ires citizens

In an unparalleled display of "moral support" for the city government of Campbell, approximately 50 citizens attended the City Council meeting Monday night for the express purpose of showing their approval of the city's stand in the current topless controversy.

The 50 people who attended, however, represented hundreds of others, for many indicated they were spokesmen for local organizations that have endorsed the city's stand in outlawing topless entertainment.

In open defiance of a city ordinance that was adopted on March 26, 1969, the Classy Chassy, a beer tavern on South Bascom, has presented topless entertainment.

The tavern also flaunted a huge sign on the front of the place with the words: "Topless Bust Chief Morgan Welcome", in reference to Campbell's police chief John Morgan.

The owner of the establishment, Michael D. Poulin and two entertainers were arrested by the Campbell police and charged with violating the city ordinance.

Their attorneys, Finch, Wies, Costello & Tennant of Campbell, claim that Campbell has no right to regulate this type of entertainment and that the ordinance is unconstitutional.

The hearing on the case has been set for 4 p.m. this Thursday, May 15, in the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga Municipal Court presided over by Judge E. P. Taylor.

In an editorial in last week's issue, The Campbell Press urged the citizens to appear at the City Council meeting on Monday to stand up and be counted.

And on Monday night that's exactly what happened. City Hall observers claim it was the most impressive display of community loyalty that has ever occurred in this city.

That the "moral support" was present became evident when Mayor Homer Hyde asked those in the audience to show by raising their hands if they were present because of the editorial in The Campbell Press.

Mayor Hyde then asked City Attorney Joe Bonacina, on whose shoulders along with Police Chief John Morgan, the burden of the city's case rests, to explain the background of the situation.

After Bonacina's fill-in, Mayor Hyde asked those wishing to express their feelings to do so.

Speaking first was the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, representing the Methodist organization. He commended Chief Morgan and the city for its stand.

Other speakers voicing their "100%" support of the city in the case included James Cripps, owner of an apartment near the tavern. He said it was "all wrong" to have such a place.

Henry Cary, representing the St. Lucy's Men's Club, said that the organization supported the city and Bill Winther, of the Knights of Columbus, echoed Cary's remarks. Cary also emphasized that there was no need for such an activity as the topless type in the town.

Bill Podgorsek, representing the Hazelwood Home and School Club, said that organization was wholeheartedly in favor of the city's stand.

Mrs. Vivian Cave added that the Country Woman's Club supported the city 100%.

Petitions out

Residents of Campbell are being asked this week to sign petitions protesting the maintenance and operation of topless entertainment establishments in Campbell, because they create public nuisances.

The petition also urges support for the City Council, the police chief and other enforcement officers in their efforts to support such activities.

Case in court

The first court test in the City of Campbell's case against the Classy Chassy topless operation will be heard in Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga Municipal Court this Thursday (May 15) at 4 p.m.

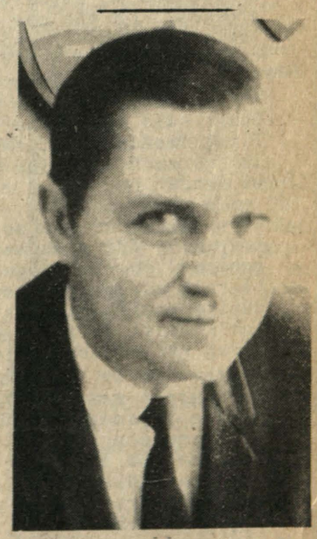
Judge E. P. Taylor will preside.

City buys site for fire house

Authorization was given the city staff on Monday night by the City Council to proceed with the acquisition of one-acre of land on W. Campbell Ave. near Dot for the projected headquarters station of the Fire Department.

City Manager Bob Stephens reported that negotiations had been completed with the owners for the parcel that has 160-foot frontage on Campbell Ave. for $32,000.

Stephens added that, although bond money was available for the site acquisition, the construction of the station si still a long way in the future.



DOUBLE HONORS--Norm Paul, of 44 El Caminito Ave., Campbell, was appointed to the Planning Commission on Monday night by the City Council and named second vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Paul, a director of the CofC, takes the place of Kel Young who recently resigned from the Planning Commission. The vice-presidency of the CofC vacancy existed because of the resignation of Don Kennedy, who was promoted by the BofA.

Bob Bullard, who was second vice-president "moved up" to the first spot. Neal Royer, superintendent of the elementary school district is president of the CofC.

Paul, a co-owner of the Plaza Theater in Campbell and a public relations specialist, has been active in civic affairs for some time. He and his wife, Charmaine, have three sons.

Editorial

The other side is heard from

In last week's issue, The Campbell Press in an editorial on this page urged the citizens of this community to stand up and be counted with respect to the defying by a local beer tavern the city's anti-topless ordinance.

We held that the action taken by the Classy Chassy on South Bascom in openly flaunting its defiance of the ordinance by staging topless shows and its insulting sign of "Topless Bust Chief Morgan Welcome" should be answered by the citizens.

We urged the people to attend the City Council on Monday night to show that they supported the City Council, Police Chief John Morgan and City Attorney Joe Bonacina in the legal fight that is pending.

The operators of the topless operation through their attorneys claim that the state has preempted the city's authority in such matters and the ordinance that Campbell has adopted is unconstitutional.

At Monday's City Council meeting approximately 50 citizens were on hand "to be counted". In some cases they represented only themselves but in others they were spokesmen for various community organizations and churches.

It was the greatest display of moral support in this community's history.

And it was much appreciated by the city administration that must carry on the legal battle.

On Thursday at 4 p.m. in the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga Municipal Court the hearing will be held on the charges filed by the city against the owner of the establishment and his entertainers.

The Classy Chassy is represented by a Campbell law firm, Finch, Wies, Costello & Tennant.

In a letter to us this week, Attorney Dave Finch of the firm "presents his case".

The Campbell Press is pleased to publish it in its entirety:

Re: Classy Chassy

Dear George:

We read the editorial in Wednesday's issue of the Press with some anxiety in that your paper is taking a position with regard to the Classy Chassy that it might not desire to maintain after a full hearing is held in court. Of even greater concern to us, however, is the presentation of a point of view which encourages the public to consider any man a lawless man who, having a good faith belief in the unconstitutionality of a law, willingly exposes himself to the humiliation of arrest, and jail and the danger of a criminal record, in order that a court can properly pass on the law's validity.

Our position in this matter has been taken after careful review of the Appelate Court decisions which have struck down similar ordinances as invalid (lawless, if you will) on two separate grounds. On the one hand the courts have said that the State Legislature having adopted detailed legislation in the area of criminal sexual activity, has pre-empted the field and no municipality may take it upon its self to add to or detract from the legislature's scheme in this area. Secondly, the State Supreme Court said in a case before it last November, that under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution topless dancing is "as much entitled to the protection of free speech as the best of dance".

We will not try to persuade you or your editorial staff, or any body else for that matter, that topless dancing should be either condoned or encouraged. Arguments as numerous and persuasive can be rallied against topless dancing as were raised against alcohol during prohibition, a woman's right to vote during the campaign for womens' suffrage, or mixed marriages during the test of the first anti-misegenation statute.

Neither do we wish to embarrass the City Council for whom we have great respect, nor to insult the Chief of Police whom we admire personally and professionally nor to disparage the interests and concerns of the citizens of Campbell. We are no more inclined to do these things than to refuse to represent a private citizen whose rights have been infringed illegally whether by another person or an agency of government and no matter how unpopular the cause.

It may well be that the majority of the people of Campbell would prefer that the Classy Chassy move across the street or down the block so that it would no longer be operating within our city limits and thus somehow be less likely to exert a degenerating moral influence. But what is of greater importance to us is that this same city never lose sight of the fact that its Council has certain legislative and constitutional rules which it must scrupulously adhere to in implementing preferences of this kind.

If a community begins declaring its unbridled love for its legislative council, and to throw stones at the man who insists upon his constitutional rights as he sees them, we might as well write the Kremlin for further instructions for we will have surrendered all our freedoms to the men who make the laws.

These are not lofty thoughts irrelevantly adapted to the situation of our client. If a city council can make topless dancing a crime it could also make it a crime for a newspaper publisher to print editorials and it could bar citizens from appearing and expressing their views at council meetings.

Please print or not print the contents of this letter as you see fit. Be sure, however, that it is motivated by our sincere regard for you, your paper and for the City of Campbell.

Yours very truly,

Dave

per" in Campbell.

But we would like to satisfy our own curiosity as to how it all happened as to "input" and "output".

Incidentally the invoices sometimes appear with the proper address. Other times with good old Juniper.

To the credit of the post office, the mail from Intertype is delivered to The Press. (We always seem to get bills, even if incorrectly addressed. Those envelopes with checks in 'em are the ones that seem to be delayed.)

We concede that "Juniper" is a much more attractive name than "Dillon" for a street.

But The Press is on Dillon and we have to live with it.

Come to think of it, wonder if the account that really is located on a "Juniper St." some place is getting mail addressed to "Dillon Ave."?

MORE ABOUT ON THE LIMB

"IMPRESSIVE"–IS JUST a few of the descriptive terms we have heard used with respect to the towering "Towers" that is rapidly arising off Campbell Ave. at Union.

By straining your neck you can now see to the top of the steel columns that are now in place and, at this writing, soar into the air for nine stories.

And that, friends, is just the half-way mark!

To get the proper perspective, one should travel the freeway between Hamilton and Camden. You get the full treatment that-away.

Already Campbell is getting to be known as the place where that tower is.

At a recent CofC luncheon, Clem Daniels, the Raider pro footballer, apologized for being late. He said he couldn't find the town.

We predict that won't be the case in future years. Just tell strangers to head for the tower.

By the way, Thayer Lyons, who is supervising the cement phase of the project for the Pete Cristich Company, informed us that we technically erred in reporting the magnitude of the cement portion of the job.

We said that "concrete was being poured". Thayer explains that concrete is not poured..You pour cement. Concrete is what happens afterwards.

Oh well..this number one sidewalk superintendent on the job didn't know the difference.

We just know that it is the BIGGEST construction job we have ever witnessed from below the ground up.

THIS BRINGS TO MIND another point about the highest construction job ever to hit town.

Maybe there should be an "observation point" at Union and Campbell.

A spot where the gawkers can turn off and crane their necks to their hearts content without jeopardizing the cars behind them.

We have noticed cars ahead of us that were wobbling like crazy as the drivers strained to crane.

And we were doing likewise.

It's hard on the neck and dangerous for the guy behind you.

WITH STILL A YEAR TO go there are already political rumblings in the air.

In fact it is now an established fact that Campbell's own DALE SCOTT, a member of the Planning Commission and recently named man-of-the-year by the JayCees, is going to seek the office of County Assessor.

Dale is executive director of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers Association and has established an enviable reputation in many fields.

We consider him an outstanding citizen and unhesitatingly endorse him for the office of County Assessor.

If this be premature, make the most of it.

Another political overtone on the local level occurred recently at a City Council meeting.

Charlie Rose, who served 10 years on the City Council but lost out on his bid for reelection last year, announced while at the mike objecting to the development on Gilman Ave. next to the city park, that he did not intend to seek reelection to the City Council.

So it goes, and summer has not even arrived yet.

TO SAM FRANKS, ADministrator of the Campbell Community Hospital, goes the credit for the most succinct wrap-up of the current city vs. topless situation.

Sam summed it this way: "We don't pay taxes to be insulted?"

Trustees ask residents share with disadvantaged students

The Board of Trustees of West Valley College has given its "full support" to a program urging residents of the college district to "share their homes with disadvantaged students" who are residents of the District and who would otherwise be unable to attend the college.

The Board took its action at a recent meeting after hearing Robert Rowe, president of the West Valley College chapter, California Junior College Faculty Association, present a proposal based on the following tenet:

"West Valley College and the residents of West Valley District should encourage realistic integration within the community by supporting a program to share homes with disadvantaged students who want to attend West Valley College. Such sharing should be on a voluntary basis on the part of student and resident."

Rowe said this tenet had already been approved by the Faculty Senate, the Student Senate, the President's Cabinet, the Faculty-Student Action Committee and by interested citizens who had recently met to discuss the possibilities of such a program.

It was needed, Rowe told the Board, because "an analysis of race relations in the United States a year after the publication of the Kerner Report indicates that the gap between ethnic groups and the dominant society in the United States is ever-widening.

had denied the use permit because the operation did not comply with the present outdoor business activity ordinance.

However, the application had been filed prior to the adoption of the ordinance.

Chamberlin claimed that the ordinance did not have to be involved in the issue but only the disapproval or approval of the use permit. Smeed maintained that the intent of the city was to regulate such operations.

However, the three councilmen (Hyde, Rogers, Doetsch) felt that the filing of the application prior to the adoption of the ordinance was the main basis and they voted to overrule the commission.

In another matter before the City Council, upon the recommendation of John Faber, chairman of the Downtown Revitalization Committee, Bill Deal, of West Valley College; Stan Becker, of the Wrinkled Prune Annex; and John Dixon, associated with Guy Farley Insurance, were appointed to the committee.

The membership was increased to 15 by the appointments. One vacancy had existed because of the resignation of Don Kennedy.

The committee will meet with the City Council and other interested citizens on Wednesday, May 21, to discuss the Federal Redevelopment Program for which the city has applied. Federal officials will be present to explain the program.

FAMILY LIFE

Dear Editor:

I want to add my voice to the small cry of the now so underestimated "silent majority" in favor of Family Life Education in our schools. I now have children in elementary school and high school, and I definitely support the administration's policy in favor of a positive influence of the school in Family Life Education.

Poppy Dinner to aid hospitalized veterans

On May 23 and 24, members of the American Legion and Auxiliary will again be offering for sale the red crepe paper poppy which symbolizes the blood spilled by the veterans of World War I on the poppy fields of France. Since that time the blood of American men has been spilled on many other battle fields, and the veterans hospitals are crowded with the wounded men who have been fighting American's battles for the last 30 years.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, in trying to help the wounded veterans pass the long hospital days and earn a little money at the same time, started the "Poppy" program. The poppies are made by the hospitalized veterans under the direction of the Auxiliary, and every penny made from the sale of the poppies goes directly to the aid of the disabled veterans and their families.

In addition to selling poppies, the West Valley Unit 158, American Legion, is sponsoring a Bar-B-Que chicken dinner, complete with all the trimmings, on Friday, May 23 at the Legion Club House, 1344 Dell Ave.

The public is invited to attend, and all proceeds will be turned over to the rehabilitation fund.

Donations are $1.75 for adults, children $1.00. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Rex Kaber, 378-4084.

Prying burglar strikes again

The "prying burglar" struck again in Campbell. This time J. S. Uniat, D.D.S., with offices located at 281 E. Hamilton Ave. was one of the victims. Using a ¾" flat bladed pry tool, the thief pried open the door of the office, went through file and desk drawers and then carried off a typewriter and a portable TV.

Quinn Sky reported to police that while he was eating lunch in a local restaurant his 1968 Chevie hardtop was pried open and men's clothing valued at $700 was removed from his car. He was in the process of moving at the time.

Nathan Serratore, 90 B. Dillon Ave. was also visited by a prying person, who apparently knew that Serratore was in the habit of concealing large sums of money in a record player. Serratore came home one night last week and found the record player pried open and $770 in cash removed from its hiding place. Nothing else was disturbed.

Firemen save baby's life

Sam Vita, 18-month-old son of Mrs. Beatrice Vita, 1808 Villa Rita Dr., was in satisfactory condition at the Los Gatos Community Hospital Monday following a near brush with death Sunday morning.

The little boy was revived by Campbell firemen Vern Lunt and Mike Johnson who used mouth-to-mouth resuscitation after he had been pulled from a backyard swimming pool and was unconscious when discovered by Mrs. Vita. He showed no visible signs of breathing when the firemen arrived but was breathing when an ambulance arrived.

JOBS WANTED!

The Youth Employment Service office has received a total of 246 applications from teen-agers between the ages of 14 and 19 who are seeking summer employment or part time employment after school.

HOWEVER, up to date, only 26 jobs have been offered, according to Jerry Arca, Chamber of Commerce Youth Employment Service chairman. Of these 26 openings, approximately one-half have already been filled.

So if any business or industry or household in the area can use help during the summer months, call the CofC office. These young adults are willing and eager to serve and need the experience.

Coupons aid hospital TV

Members of the Porterville State Hospital Parents Group of Santa Clara County were able to finance the installation of a closed TV circuit for educational and training purposes at the retarded children's hospital through the cooperation of local citizens collecting Betty Crocker coupons.

The groups will continue their collection with the goal of color TV for all wards, as color TV will instill a natural awareness through the training and education which is felt will be beneficial to the children confined to the hospital.

Free course aids small businessman

"Starting and Managing a Small Business" is the title of an evening program being held at Camden High School on Monday, May 19, 7 p.m. in Room 1.

The free two-hour program will consider "who" the small businessman is; what he needs in terms of financial and legal aid; and point him toward technical assistance programs and educational training.

Persons now in business or those considering taking on the responsibilities of a business are urged to attend.

Saratoga seeks police service from Campbell

Whether it is feasible for the City of Campbell to operate the police department for the City of Saratoga may be determined by a study that is to be undertaken by Police Chief John Morgan of Campbell.

On Monday night, as a result of a letter from J. R. Huff, city administrator of Saratoga, the City Council gave approval for Chief Morgan to explore all the facets of the situation.

Huff said that the Saratoga City Council had made the request for the study by Morgan. The study, he pointed out, would encompass the allocation of costs; the different needs of the two communities; assurance that each city would have adequate administrative control and what type of special services would be provided.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

When Secretary of Labor Shultz recently announced his plan to train almost 6,000 additional Job Corps trainees while closing 59 Centers, it set off a national outcry which was clearly heard here on Capitol Hill. Dozens of Job Corps proponents, mostly those employed as administrators in the camps scheduled for closing, descended on Capitol Hill and several well-known Senators made headlines with their protests.

But amidst all the hubbub little attention was paid to a highly successful program which has been quietly training and finding jobs for the hard-core unemployed and the dropout since 1962– The Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA).

MDTA was of bipartisan origin and preceded the highly publicized War On Poverty by several years. Unlike the poverty program, which erupted on the national scene without proper planning, the concept of MDTA was sound at the outset. Time and performance have vindicated the judgment of those of us who supported it.

More than one million persons have been enrolled in manpower and development training programs. By 1968 450,000 had completed their training in either an educational institution or through "on-the-job" training. 85% of those who completed institutional training obtained jobs and 75% were still employed at the time of last contact.

Two-thirds of those trained were classified as disadvantaged and over half were school dropouts. In 1968 of 140,000 persons enrolled in public school MDTA programs, 68% were disadvantaged, 49% were non-white and 60% had less than a high school education.

MDTA is jointly administered by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare which arranges for institutional training and classroom instruction, and the Department of Labor which refers individuals to manpower training programs and is responsible for the placement of trainees. The partnership has worked well and in this writer's opinion has done much to attack the hard core of poverty.

Despite this success there is much more for MDTA to accomplish. Each year young people drop out of high school and others with obsolete skills are displaced. We still lack sufficient trained manpower in health and other technical services.

In this year of a tight budget the one place Congress should not economize is in the administration of manpower and development training programs because we can do more to bring training to an even larger group of the disadvantaged. Appropriations must be made available earlier in the fiscal year to allow school districts to properly plan their programs. The chronically ill need medical aid so as to render them fit for manpower training and a day care program for children under the age of three would make it possible to train and employ many welfare mothers.

I sincerely hope the practice of proliferating our effort in duplicating and poorly planned programs has come to an end. The wisest public policy is to expand and improve a proven program.

Pony League opens season at Rincon Park with impressive ceremonies

BIG EVENT—A sun-drenched crowd was on hand last Saturday (May 10) when the Campbell-Moreland Pony League opened the 1969 season at the city-owned Rincon Park.

The ball field, rated as one of the best in the Valley, has been built with volunteer labor and much of the materials for the modern diamond construction has been donated.

The ball field is an illustration of what can be done to the city-owned park and recreational area, Don Hebard, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, pointed out to the crowd, emphasizing that a favorable vote in the city bond election June 10, will allow the city to acquire eight acres of adjoining property which is next to six acres of school district land that is also available for recreational use.

Hebard also described how the entire area (23 acres), virtually the only open space left within the city limits, could be utilized for the benefit of the community as a whole.

He also explained that shoule the bond issue be defeated, a 288-unit four-story apartment complex would be built adjacent to present Rincon Park which now consists of only seven acres.

Members of the bond drive committee were also on hand at the opening day ceremonies distributing literature about the bond issue.

City, civic and league officials took part in the opening day ceremonies which even included the cutting of a cake (top photo on the right).

Court Watson (a member of the parks commission, but on Saturday standing in for his wife, Jeanette, head of the city beautification committee), is shown wielding the knife. On the left is Hebard and in the center, Hank Mestice, master of ceremonies for the program and long-time active in league activities.

Musical selections were presented by the Campbell High band (above) in uniform.

In addition, the national anthem at the flag raising, and the band gave "flourishes" when the teams were introduced.

Invocation and dedication was given by the Rev. Anthony Wayne Myers, of the Congregational Church of Campbell, while Father John Lally gave the benediction.

TROOP 309

Members of Boy Scout Troop 309, with Fred Jones, Scoutmaster, recently took part in the Scout-O-Rama held at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds. The troop won a proficiency blue ribbon for their demonstration of rope making and display of knot boards.

Taking part were Doug Kepler, Barry Gibert, Harvey Williams, Dave Flagler, Vic Carasco, Alan Kurbish and John Magee. Other members of the troop include Tim Hurley, Greg Feich, Bob Neis, Lance Conely and Paul Kepler.

The troop enjoyed a swim party at the Harvey Williams residence at 2047 Orestes during the first week of May. Swimming and refreshments were the order of the evening.

Hawthorne "looks good"

The sophomore crop looks exciting, according to the Washington State coaches. Little Chuck Hawthorne is going to get a full look at quarterback after the job he did last season in directing the Coubabes, according to Coach Jim Sweeney. Sweeney describes him as "very competitive and very productive under fire".

He has been compared to Dennis Erickson, Sweeney's quarterback for his last two seasons at Montana State and son of WSU Frosh Coach Pinky Erickson.

Moreland Bobby Sox

The Moreland Bobby Sox teams will start their third season of play on Monday, May 19 at the Gussie Baker School. Three games will be played during the evening, starting at 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Twelve teams of girls have been formed between the ages of 9 and 15, and managers assigned for each team, and the league is confident they will capture the title of Santa Clara Valley Bobby Sox Champs for the second year in a row.

Girl Scouts

LITTERING IS UNLAWFUL--and Kathy Scarborough and Leader of Girl Scout Troop No. 166, Mrs. R. J. Crapo, pause by a pile of litter picked up by the girls at Vasona Park in a recent cleanup campaign held by the girls in connection with May Cleanup month.

NEIGHBORHOOD NO. 17
By Boots Lansford

Neither cool breezes nor overcast skies deterred Neighborhood 17 Girl Scouts from beautifying Vasona County Park May 3, Brownies, Juniors and Cadettes from Campbell, numbering 155, took part in a combination "Know your sister troop" and "Clean your County Park" venture. Park Rangers assigned smaller girls to pull weeds and grass from ice plant beds since their light weight would not injure the tender ground cover. Other girls were given large plastic litter bags to fill with debris.

Such odd things as angle irons, paper, boxes, weeds, a fuel can, a grass catcher from a lawn mower, metal tubing, cables, an old chaise lounge, a rusted bicycle and even an abandoned duck egg were searched out and brought back to Pond Pagoda No. 2, as the lunch whistle blew.

There, Cadette Troop 13 had prepared cooking fires for each troop to use. A game session followed lunch, then a song fest. Leaders wandered about visiting with friends; making new acquaintances; discovering Girl Scout Neighborhood No. 18 at Pond Pagoda No. 1 about to eat Hobo Hash and Friendship Salad; and enjoying the facilities that will soon be the scene of day camp activity.

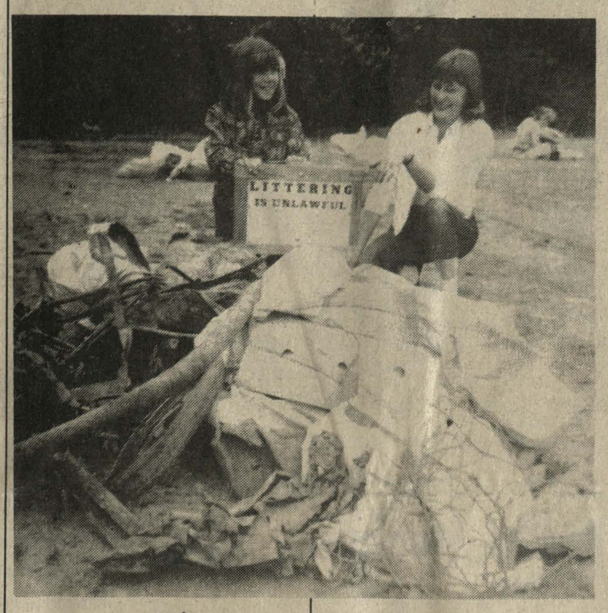
The climax built as fun awards were given to each troop. Seven individual titles of "Precious Trash Champions" were bestowed on girls who brought back a list of ten items of precious trash. A special gift of two Band-Aids went to Troop 669 from Dover School for finding and closing a rusty pocket knife in their litter.

Troop 303 from Sherman Oaks School received bars of soap to wash their rusty hands for bringing back more pieces of junk than anyone else.

Troops 777 from Sherman Oaks and 861 from Campbell School picked up more trash than anyone else, so their members were each given a "nose pin" so they would not have to smell their trash.

The final award, given to Troop 166 from Dover School because they found the least amount of litter in their area, was in the form of all trash from all the other troops so that 166 could have some for their very own.

The fun and clean day ended at 3 p.m., in a more serious vein, with the traditional lowering of the flag as the girls sang daytime taps.



HAPPY BROWNIES---Former Scout Jeri Whithead shows Brownies from Troop 777 how to be happy while they fill a litter bag in helping clean up Vasona Park during the May Cleanup month.

This is a TRUE FISH STORY

Mrs. John Boler, 3879 Bucknall Rd. will remember the 1969 opening day of trout season for a long time.

Mrs. Boler, who was camping out at Lewiston with her husband, had the thrill of a lifetime when she hooked a lively 23½-inch German Brown trout. Her first big fish, it weighed in at six pounds. She caught three other Kokanee trout during the weekend.

Mrs. Boler was using a spinning reel with a flasher, artificial bait and a worm. Her husband, who caught a four pounder, had to take a back seat to his wife in the fishing field. With the Bolers for the opening day season were their neighbors, Cliff Lee and son David and two other out-of-town couples.

She followed this up with such famed works as "Carousel", "Brigadoon", "Gentlemen Prefer Blonds", "Paint Your Wagon", "110 in the Shade", and many, many more.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA TO SELL REAL PROPERTY NO LONGER NEEDED FOR HIGHWAY PURPOSES

WHEREAS, County of Santa Clara has acquired for highway purposes certain real property no longer needed for such purposes, such property being more fully described in Exhibit A, attached hereto and made a part hereof as fully as if set forth at length herein,

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved, that pursuant to the authority of Section 960.4 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara do hereby declare their intention to offer for sale the above described real property.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such real property shall be sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The minimum amount which will be accepted for the sale of such property shall be the sum of Ninety-five Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($95,000.00).

2. The County of Santa Clara has purchased a preliminary title report from Title Insurance and Trust Company, San Jose, Escrow No. 320748. The successful bidder may close the transaction through this escrow if so desired at such title company. A copy of such preliminary title report is available for inspection at the title company.

3. All sealed bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check, certified check or the equivalent made out to the order of the County of Santa Clara, or the title company listed in paragraph 2 above, in the amount of Nine Thousand Five Hundred and no/100- Dollars ($9,500.00). All oral bids from persons not submitting written bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check, certified check, or the equivalent, in the amount of ten percent of the minimum price specified in this resolution. No bid shall be considered unless such deposit is enclosed or provided therewith.

4. Written bids shall be on forms provided by the County and the bidder must designate in such bid which payment option he chosen. Before accepting any written bid, the Board of Supervisors shall call for oral bids. Any oral bid must exceed by at least five per cent the highest written bid. In the absence of written bids, the minimum oral bid shall be in the amount specified in paragraph 1. Final acceptance of an oral bid shall not be made, however, unless such oral bid is reduced to writing and signed by the offeror on a form provided by the County and indicating therein which payment option has been chosen.

No commission shall be paid unless there is contained in or with the sealed proposal the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid. No commission shall be paid in connection with a successful oral bid unless the oral bid, when reduced to writing, states in or with such written document the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid.

5. The County may accept the bid of the highest responsible bidder (written or oral) or may reject all bids, as well as waiving any and all defects or informalities in any and all such bids. Any sale may be cancelled at any time prior to the recordation of the deed, in which event all monies deposited shall be refunded without payment of interest. In determining the highest proposal, the Board shall not subtract therefrom any commission to be paid in accordance with paragraph 12 hereof.

6. Within sixty (60) days of the date of acceptance of the bid by the Board of Supervisors, the successful bidder shall (a) increase his deposit to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of the bid in favor of the County of Santa Clara, and in addition, (b) deliver a cashier's check, certified check or the equivalent in an amount of the Real Property Transfer Tax payable to the County Recorder of the County of Santa Clara.

7. Upon receipt of the additional deposit and payment required in paragraph 5, the successful bidder may, in the alternative, meet either of the following terms:

(a) The balance of the purchase price to be paid in the form of cash, certified check, of seventy-five per cent (75%) of the amount of the bid, payable in escrow within ninety (90) days after the date of acceptance of the bid by the Board of Supervisors; or

(b) The balance of the purchase price (seventy-five per cent of the amount bid) to be evidenced by a promissory note by the successful bidder naming the County of Santa Clara as payee or obligee, such evidence of indebtedness to be secured by a first deed of trust (as a first security interest) covering the entire parcel being sold. Such note shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum to be payable on or before eighteen (18) months after date of recordation of deed. The deed of trust shall contain a clause providing for acceleration upon the alienation of title.

Upon receipt by County of all documents and money provided for in (a) or (b) above, and upon the recordation of such deed of trust, County shall record a deed in favor of the successful bidder.

8. Until the execution of and delivery to the successful bidder of the deed, the successful bidder acquires no right, title or interest or equity in or to such real property.

9. A failure of the successful bidder to increase the deposit or furnish the Real Property Transfer Tax provided for in paragraph 6 above, or a failure to comply with the provisions of paragraph 7 or any other provisions of this resolution shall give County the option to terminate the sales proceeding and retain from such deposit any and all expenses incurred by it and attributable to such sale proceedings.

10. The sale shall be without warranty, express or implied, and shall be subject to all liens, easements and encumbrances, whether of record or not, as of the date of recordation of the deed. The County of Santa Clara does not guarantee the condition of the property, nor does it assume any responsibility for its conformance to codes or regulations of the State of California or the city or county in which the property is located. It is the successful bidder's responsibility to determine all applicable building, planning and zoning regulations relative to the property.

11. Any and all expenses incurred in the transfer of title to such property to the successful bidder, including title insurance, escrow charges and Real Property Transfer Tax shall be paid by the successful bidder, with the exception that the County of Santa Clara will pay for the preliminary title report previously referred to.

12. In the event a commission is to be paid in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4 above, County shall pay a licensed real estate broker commission in the maximum of six per cent of the purchase price, such commission, however, to be paid only in the event that the Board of Supervisors accepts a bid, only out of monies received by the Board of Supervisors for the sale of the property, and only after recordation of the deed. Such commission shall be paid as follows: Three per cent of the purchase price to the licensed real estate broker submitting the highest acceptable sealed bid and three per cent of the purchase price to the licensed real estate broker submitting the successful bid.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Wednesday, June 25, 1969, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a.m. at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in Room 524 in the County Administration Building, 70 West Hedding Street, San Jose, California 95110, is hereby fixed as the time and place at which sealed bids, in writing, for the purchase of such property will be received. NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved, that pursuant to the authority of Section 960.4 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara do hereby declare their intention to offer for sale the above described real property.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such real property shall be sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The minimum amount which will be accepted for the sale of such property shall be the sum of Ninety Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($90,000.00).

2. The County of Santa Clara has purchased a preliminary title report from Title Insurance and Trust Company, San Jose, Escrow No. 320747. The successful bidder may close the transaction through this escrow if so desired at such title company. A copy of such preliminary title report is available for inspection at the title company.

3. All sealed bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check, certified check or the equivalent made out to the order of the County of Santa Clara, or the title company listed in paragraph 2 above, in the amount of Nine Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($9,000.00). All oral bids from persons not submitting written bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check, certified check or the equivalent, in the amount of ten per cent of the minimum price specified in this resolution. No bid shall be considered unless such deposit is enclosed or provided therewith.

4. Written bids shall be on forms provided by the County and the bidder must designate in such bid which payment option he has chosen. Before accepting any written bid, the Board of Supervisors shall call for oral bids. Any oral bid must exceed by at least five per cent the highest written bid. In the absence of written bids, the minimum oral bid shall be in the amount specified in paragraph 1. Final acceptance of an oral bid shall not be made, however, unless such oral bid is reduced to writing and signed by the offeror on a form provided by the County and indicating therein which payment option has been chosen.

No commission shall be paid unless there is contained in or with the sealed proposal the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid. No commission shall be paid in connection with a successful oral bid unless the oral bid, when reduced to writing, states in or with such written document the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid.

5. The County may accept the bid of the highest responsible bidder (written or oral) or may reject all bids, as well as waiving any and all defects or informalities in any and all such bids. Any sale may be cancelled at any time prior to the recordation of the deed, in which event all monies deposited shall be refunded without payment of interest. In determining the highest proposal, the Board shall not subtract therefrom any commission to be paid in accordance with paragraph 12 hereof.

6. Within sixty (60) days of the date of acceptance of the bid by the Board of Supervisors, the successful bidder shall (a) increase his deposit to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of the bid in favor of the County of Santa Clara, and in addition, (b) deliver a cashier's check, certified check or the equivalent in an amount of the Real Property Transfer Tax payable to the County Recorder of the County of Santa Clara.

7. Upon receipt of the additional deposit and payment required in paragraph 5, the successful bidder may, in the alternative, meet either of the following terms:

(a) The balance of the purchase price to be paid in the form of cash, certified check, cashier's check or the equivalent in the sum of seventy-five per cent (75%) of the amount of the bid, payable in escrow within ninety (90) days after the date of acceptance of the bid by the Board of Supervisors; or

(b) The balance of the purchase price (seventy-five percent of the amount bid) to be evidenced by a promissory note by the successful bidder naming the County of Santa Clara as payee or obligee, such evidence of indebtedness to be secured by a first deed of trust (as a first security interest) covering the entire parcel being sold. Such note shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum to be payable on or before eighteen (18) months after date of recordation of deed. The deed of trust shall contain a clause providing for acceleration upon the alienation of title.

Upon receipt by County of all documents and money provided for in (a) or (b) above, and upon the recordation of such deed of trust, County shall record a deed in favor of the successful bidder.

8. Until the execution of and delivery to the successful bidder of the deed, the successful bidder acquires no right, title or interest or equity in or to such real property.

9. A failure of the successful bidder to increase the deposit or furnish the Real Property Transfer Tax provided for in paragraph 6 above, or a failure to comply with the provisions of paragraph 7 or any other provisions of this resolution shall give County the option to terminate the sales proceeding and retain from such deposit any and all expenses incurred by it and attributable to such sale proceedings.

10. The sale shall be without warranty, express or implied, and shall be subject to all liens, easements and encumbrances, whether of record or not, as of the date of recordation of the deed. The County of Santa Clara does not guarantee the condition of the property, nor does it assume any responsibility for its conformance to codes or regulations of the State of California or the city or county in which the property is located. It is the successful bidder's responsibility to determine all applicable building, planning and zoning regulations relative to the property.

11. Any and all expenses incurred in the transfer of title to such property to the successful bidder, including title insurance, escrow charges and Real Property Transfer Tax shall be paid by the successful bidder, with the exception that the County of Santa Clara will pay for the preliminary title report previously referred to.

12. In the event a commission is to be paid in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4 above, County shall pay a licensed real estate broker commission in the maximum of six per cent of the purchase price, such commission, however, to be paid only in the event that the Board of Supervisors accepts a bid, only out of monies received by the Board of Supervisors for the sale of the property, and only after recordation of the deed. Such commission shall be paid as follows: Three per cent of the purchase price to the licensed real estate broker submitting the highest acceptable sealed bid and three per cent of the purchase price to the licensed real estate broker submitting the successful bid.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Wednesday, June 25, 1969, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a.m. at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in Room 524 in the County Administration Building, 70 West Hedding Street, San Jose, California 95110, is hereby fixed as the time and place at which sealed bids, in writing, for the purchase of such property will be received.
